DELHI LOK SABHA ELECTION 2024

Overview

As the Lok Sabha elections progress, the upcoming sixth phase scheduled for May 25 is drawing significant attention. This phase encompasses a total of 58 Lok Sabha constituencies spread across six states and two Union territories, including all seven seats in Delhi and ten seats in Haryana. A total of 889 candidates will be contesting in this phase from these regions.

Notably, this phase will also witness polling in Jammu & Kashmir's Anantnag-Rajouri Lok Sabha constituency, which had its polling date revised from May 7 to May 25 due to logistical and communication challenges. In Delhi, key constituencies such as Chandni Chowk, North East Delhi, and New Delhi will play a crucial role as voters determine their representation in the upcoming government.

The outcome of the polling on May 25 will have a significant impact on the political landscape, not just in Delhi but also across 51 other Lok Sabha constituencies in seven states that are voting on the same day. This phase marks an important juncture in the electoral process, shaping the direction of governance in these regions.

SPECIAL REPORT

DELHI, LOK SABHA ELECTIONS-2024

Significance of Delhi Election

The upcoming Delhi election on May 25, part of the sixth phase of the Lok Sabha Elections 2024, is highly significant, featuring a direct contest between the BJP and the INDIA bloc, comprising Congress and AAP. The BJP, which won all seven seats in the previous two elections, has seen intense campaigns as it focuses on Prime Minister Modi's development agenda while questioning Arvind Kejriwal's integrity following his arrest in the Delhi liquor policy scam. Kejriwal's release on interim bail has energized the INDIA bloc's campaign, leveraging a sympathy wave with the slogan "jail ka jawab vote se." The Congress, aiming for a revival in Delhi, has been actively seeking support, with former President Sonia Gandhi urging voters to back the INDIA bloc candidates. The results, set to be announced on June 4, are expected to significantly impact the political landscape in the capital.

Actions Taken for Phase 6 of Lok Sabha Elections 2024

- Liquor Store Closures: All liquor stores and licensed premises in Delhi, Faridabad, and Gurgaon will be closed from 6 PM on May 23 to 6 PM on May 25. Additionally, there will be no liquor sales on June 4, the day election results are announced.
- Early Metro Services: The Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) announced that on May 25, metro services on all lines will begin at 4 AM to accommodate security personnel and election employees. Trains will run at 30-minute intervals until 6 AM.
- Additional Bus Services: The Delhi Transport Corporation will operate additional buses on 35 routes starting at 4 AM on May 25. Delhi Integrated Multi-Model Transit System Ltd. (DIMTS) will also run extra bus services on 46 routes to ensure accessibility for election staff and security personnel across the NCR.
- School Closures: Due to the ongoing heatwave, the Delhi government has instructed all private schools to begin summer vacations immediately.
- Bank Holidays: Banks in Delhi will remain closed on May 25, the fourth Saturday of the month, as part of the broader holiday schedule announced by the Reserve Bank of India for the election period.
